“We can’t all go - but we can’t go alone”

Looking back at April, Praise God:

- ◇ A number of people are discussing getting baptized after Bruce preached on Baptism!
- ◇ We witnessed 10 Baptisms in our building from 3 different area churches.
- ◇ The new church web-site is up and running www.limerickbaptistchurch.ie
- ◇ Brenda’s arms are slowly getting better.
- ◇ Great turnout for church work-day to create a grassy area for families and games.

Turn-out for work day: spreading dirt

One of our youth Jacqueline getting baptised!

Looking ahead to May, please God:

- ◇ Those interested in Baptism would take that step of obedience.
- ◇ For Nenagh church to grow and for a pastor for them.
- ◇ For a man named Benny: Lost but married to a believing woman and is open to hearing the gospel.
- ◇ May 25 Referendum vote on abortion in Ireland. Issue is dividing the country heatedly.
- ◇ As allergy season begins, pray we don’t get sick and can manage well this year.

“Walk (Live) in a manner worthy of the calling...”

“I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.” Ephesians 4:1-3

Bruce has been teaching through the book of Ephesians in Nenagh. This past month we hit these verses and it was a great reminder to both us and those attending that God wants us all to serve humbly, patiently, lovingly, peaceably. All of us have pride issues to some extent. It's easy to get caught up in “We do this and that and such and such, oh and look here at this!” and those looking on say “oooh” and “ahhh” and you find yourself caught in pride, frustration, impatience, and all about the work not the Worker. We were both reminded that we are here to serve not fix. There are many areas we would see different if we were in Canada or the US, but we are not. We are in Ireland and things need to look Irish.

This is not to say that things do not need to change here, but God will bring about that change in His time and His ways. We will serve as He commands and teach where we are invited.

Perhaps this is a lesson for everyone to learn. Serve others, don't try and fix them. Love and serve and when God starts doing something, be there to walk with each other.

We have also been reminded to take a day away from serving to rest. We are still figuring out what that looks like for us so please pray in that regard.

We are thankful for social media which allows us stay in touch with many of you and pray for you as often as we see your faces. For those of you not on Facebook, twitter or whatever, you are still prayed for as we have an old fashioned paper book with all your names and info in it. As we often say, but truly mean, you are loved and we are so thankful for your support. We truly could not do this without you!

Love and Prayers,

Bruce and Brenda Taylor
